

The University's advertising has an annual theme/style which is directed by the Marketing and Communications Department. All advertising by Faculties/Divisions is arranged as follows:

- Staff recruitment – through Human Resources Department
- Courses, scholarships, events, research, tenders etc – through Marketing and Communications Department.

The Publications Manager approves corporate identity elements in advertising.